Pano Karatassos, Owner, Chops.

No matter what Atlanta has a taste for, be it a filet of salmon or dry-aged prime beef, capellini pasta or a chop, one of Pano Karatassos's eight restaurants is sure to satisfy. For Pano, customer satisfaction means delivering the widest selection, the very best quality, and the finest service. He's built an entire empire on accommodating his customers' various tastes and preferences. Which is why his restaurants display this symbol. It means whether you smoke or not you'll be accommodated. And it's just another way Pano satisfies all of his customers' tastes.
